Banditti Defeat Imperial Troops in Every Engagement.

Important Positions and the Sarsing Arsenal Captured.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, June 4.—A despatch to The Times from Tientsin, China, says that the revolution in the provinces of Kirin and Manchuria is extending.

Mounted banditti, armed with repeating rifles, have defeated the imperial troops in every engagement and have occupied several important positions, including the Sarsing Arsenal, in which 100,000 rifles were stored.

It is added that the situation is so alarming that Viceroy Li Hung Chang is awaiting the gathering together of a large force of troops before attempting to suppress the rebellion.

KICKING AGAINST ROCHE.

Tammanyites Protest the Saloon-Keeper's Appointment.

There is the biggest kind of a "kick" among Tammany men in the Twenty-fifth District over the appointment of "Con" Roche as sub-pena server, at $1,000 a year, by District Attorney Fellows. Roche is a liquor-dealer who has a good income from his business, and there is double dissatisfaction because the place was given to a man who did not need it, and because a man who did need it was discharged to make room for him.

Roche keeps a saloon at One Hundred and Fifth street and third avenue, and is the President of the old Twenty-seventh Precinct Liquor-Dealers' Association. He was a candidate for the Tammany nomination for Alderman at one time.

Roche is a sub-leader, who looks after petty patronage. He has been promising positions to place-hunters for some time. The first "good thing" that came along he took himself. Therefore the feeling against him and the organization, his partner in the deception, is all the more bitter.

THINKS "NO. 1" MAY BE CRAZY

Ex-Minister Egan's Idea of P. J. P. Tynan's New Book.

Not True that Parnell Knew of the Plan to Kill Cavendish.

(By Associated Press.)
ST. LOUIS, June 4.—Patrick Egan, ex-Minister to Chili, who was so closely related to the late Charles Stewart Parnell and Michael Davitt in affairs of the Irish Land League, when sent last night in regard to P. J. P. Tynan's book containing startling confessions and charges relative to the Irish invincible conspiracy, which resulted in the Phoenix Park assassinations, said:

"It is stated in New York that Tynan's writing and publication of this book is the latest of the London Times, which is believed to be making a second attempt to connect the late Mr. Parnell and the Parnellites with the extreme or invincible of Irish agitators, viewed with the assassination of Cavendish."

"I know of my own knowledge that the Times has been engaged in this second movement for the past two years. I also know that the Times has enlisted in the search for evidence that may go to prove that Parnell or the Land League was cognizant of the plans of the extremist wing of the Irish agitators, the wing that urged the assassination of Cavendish, the struggle against England, and that advocated assassination."

"If Parnell knew of the assassination of Cavendish, he would surely have become known, because the London Times ransacked Ireland, France, the United States and England for evidence of the connection of this connecting link, buying up every one it could, spending in all over $100,000, and failed in its attempt to connect Parnell with the assassination of Cavendish."

"The charge that Parnell knew of the assassination of Cavendish is a mere fabrication. Parnell was a man of the British Parliament who served with Parnell and knew him."

"If Parnell, or the Land League, or any of Parnell's followers, had had any connection with these crimes the fact would surely have become known, because the London Times ransacked Ireland, France, the United States and England for evidence of the connection of this connecting link, buying up every one it could, spending in all over $100,000, and failed in its attempt to connect Parnell with the assassination of Cavendish."

CHEEK OF THE COAL COMBINE

Films Excuse Offered for Short Supply and High Prices.

The sale of anthracite coal at $4.50 per ton, delivered anywhere in New York or Brooklyn, will be continued for the present by "The World," and no consumer is compelled to submit to the extortion of the dealer's combine.

The insolence and impudence of the combine in continuing the exorbitant schedule in the face of the demonstrated of "The World" that it is extortion, is astonishing.

The nerve of the combine in first declaring an increase in the price, because the bituminous coal miners are on strike and there is a consequent increase in the demand for hard coal, and then at the very same time, when the demand for bituminous coal is falling off, it is simply marvellous.

The combine is now suffering from this action of the combine. "The World" will fill all orders left at the store in double quantities, and will charge only $4.50 per ton for it. It doesn't require much thinking to do this, retail dealers who haul coal only to their neighborhood trade, short-distance hauls, can afford to sell at even less than that, and that $6.25 per ton is simply robbery.

THAT BLUE SATIN BAG.

Through It Miss Thankful Was Forced to Be a Matchmaker.

It seemed to be one of the ironies of fate that her name should have been Miss Thankful Hope. Strangers smiled inactively at the name when they first met her, for to them there was so little in her narrow life to be thankful for, and nothing to hope for. And yet to those of the limited number who knew Miss Thankful the name was, after all, quite appropriate.

She was a faded-looking little woman of forty-five, whose plain face was only redeemed by a pair of smiling brown eyes. She was a day seamstress and made enough to pay her board and usually to keep herself suitably clothed.

It was a standing joke among the other boarders that no matter how disagreeable the day Miss Thankful could always find something pleasant to be said about it. And, no matter how unrepresenting the last new boarder, Miss Thankful's kind heart was sure to disprove some excuse.

She had watched Florence, Mrs. Stinson's young daughter, grow up into womanhood and had shared her timid

Opening of the Madison Square's Skye Garden To-Night.

Other Roofs Will Blaze Too—Mansfield After a New Repertoire.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, June 4.—The opening of the Madison Square Skye Garden, which opens this evening with an unusually strong array of vaudeville artists. The most important change is the construction of thirty-two private boxes on a steel framework twenty feet above the roof and over 100 feet above the street, from which can be seen Central Park on the north and the Brooklyn Bridge and Statue of Liberty on the south, and gives the effect of being really suspended in the air. This part of the popular entertainment has become one of the most successful of the summer. The chairs, flower-pots, stage and everything pertaining to the garden have been repainted and renovated, giving them a new appearance, and a great number of electric lights have been added, in addition to the incandescent lamps.

PANIC ON FERRY-BOATS.

Colorado Smashed: Piling and Fire Scared the Orange's Passengers.

It was reported this morning that slight panics were caused on two ferry-boats last night through a collision and a slight fire.

At 9:10 o'clock the ferry-boat Colorado, running between Roosevelt street, this city, and Broadway, Williamsburg, while crowded with passengers, ran into the side of her Broadway slip. The accident was caused by the heavy rushing tide.

The force of the impact threw half the passengers off the feet and caused some excitement. None was injured, but several piles of the pier were demolished. A fire broke out on board the ferry-boat Orange while she was in midstream of North River last night about 10 o'clock. The fire was caused by a lighted cigar, which was thrown overboard by a passenger. The boat was stopped and a blaze which had occurred by root taking fire in the smokestack was extinguished.

While the plaudits for Vesta Tilley, whose farewell night it was, were still ringing through "Tony" Theatre last Friday night, Manager Harry Sanderson sent for his advertising man and said: "This is a great night, Eddie, but we must not forget business. The King is dead; long live the King! Get out some of those three-sheets of Bessie Bonehill and put them on the boards in front of the house before the audience goes out."

Richard Mansfield sneaked off to London the other day and is now there, looking for new plays. Mr. Mansfield, it is known, will not be seen next season in any of his old plays. He made this determination before he left. Just what dramatic material he has his eye on we can't see, but he must have something good in sight when he shelves his whole repertoire so suddenly.

"I don't afford a new dress this year. That three weeks I was sick last month put that out of the question, and so it does seem as if I could buy that bag if I want to. Only it would be silly—downright silly!" she sighed.

"I never had anything as pretty as that. Maybe that's why as pretty as have got my heart sick. Even my dress have been brown or black. They last better."

"I've had a kind of brown and black life, anyway. But there now, that sounds complainin', and I've no cause to complain. The Lord's been good to me and prospered me right along."

"Good evening, Mr. Jones," said a cheerful voice at her side. "Right nice window. Our trimmer beats any in town. Lots of pretty things, too," he added, with the pardonable pride of a head clerk.

"Good evening, Mr. Jones," answered Miss Thankful. "Yes, I was just looking in at the goods. I—she hesitated—"was just noticing that blue satin bag over there in the corner—see?"

DISEASED BEEF SEIZED.

Inspectors Find that Two Cows Had Tuberculosis.

Sent from Wright's Farm to an East-Side Market.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, June 4.—The health department, seized and removed to the offal dock, at the foot of West Thirtieth street, yesterday afternoon, two cows that had been butchered for the market and were found to be infected with tuberculosis.

The cows were purchased by Butcher Joseph Loewell, from William Wright, a farmer, between Golden Bridge and Purdy station on the Harlem railroad. Wright is said to be the President of a bank in Summerville and the owner of a very large stock farm.

Inspector Mars had his attention called to the cows on Mr. Wright's farm some time ago, and when two of them were shipped to New York Saturday he followed and found they were sent to Mr. Loewell, who rents a room from Schwarzhild & Sulzberger, at Forty-fourth street and East River.

The cows were found to have tuberculosis and the lungs tested by the Rabbi butcher and the quarters stamped Koshier. After that the most was seized by the Inspector, and the examination that followed showed the lungs to be badly affected.

Inspector Mars reported the seizure of the beef to Sanitary Inspector Roberts this morning, and the matter was referred to President Wilson. An investigation will be made to ascertain whether or not any other cattle in Mr. Wright's herd are suffering from the disease, and if so the attention of the State Board of Health will be called to the matter.

Inspector Mars insinuates in his report that Mr. Wright must have had some knowledge that the cattle were diseased, and that he should have taken all probable that some legal steps will be taken to punish him.

During the last two months there have been three instances where Koshier beef has been condemned, and the health officers are beginning to suspect that the butchers are careless in their examination, and that a closer supervision should be exercised by the health authorities.
